

NAVIGATING ADR THROUGH THE LENS OF BORNEO

15th JULY 2024 | 9AM - 12PM
PULLMAN HOTEL, KUCHING

SESSION 1

SHOULD COURT MEDIATE?

Mediation offers cost-effective and efficient resolution while preserving relationships. Yet, questions arise regarding the extent of a judge's involvement and the efficacy of mediation. Join us as we deliberate on the merits and pitfall of court mediation from a diverse panel- perspective of a lawyer, former judge and a court registrar.

NAVIGATING LEGAL AVENUES: COURTROOM TRIALS & ARBITRATION HEARINGS

Navigating between these two legal avenues requires a comprehensive grasp of their respective processes, advantages, and limitations. By weighing these factors, parties can make informed decisions to effectively resolve their disputes. Whether embracing the traditional rigor of a courtroom trial or the flexibility of arbitration, it's essential to consider the perspectives of various stakeholders. Let's delve into their insights and perspectives to gain a deeper understanding of the options available for dispute resolution.
